

BIONOTE

Dr. Ketki Tara Kumaiyan is presently serving as Head & Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science in Government Degree College, Bhatronjkhan Almora , Uttarakhand. She is UKPSC Commission appointed and ranked 2nd in her subject batch. Having had a meritorious academic trajectory, she has the distinction of being throughout First Class, a Gold Medallist in BA and has ranked 4th in the University Order-of-Merit. Decorated with the venerated Ph.D degree, she is also UGC NET qualified and also has the distinction of being UGC Junior Research Fellow. Moreover she also holds a Diploma in Women Empowerment and Development.

Still further she has successfully executed administrative duties , exam related, extension, professional development duties as Head & Convenor, as Nodal Officer, as Program Officer, as Coordinator, as Organiser and as Committee Incharge for various committees and programs to the best of her ability.

Having had a vast and extensive experience of teaching and mentoring undergraduates, postgraduates, research scholars she also has the privilege of delivering lectures to the gazetted and non-gazetted officers. Her areas of interest encompass, gender studies, constitutional law, contemporary political philosophy, Public Administration and Indian Politics and Government.

Her penchant for research is reflected in her research papers, book reviews and her rich editorial experience whereby she has co-edited three books and has been a member of editorial board and also has been a Managing editor. Besides that she has actively participated in various International and National and State level Seminars, Workshops, Talks, Symposia's as well.